UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE.

GEORGE G. WHITE, OF NEW YORK, N. Y., ASSIGNOR TO THE NEW YORK CONSOLIDATED CARD COMPANY, OF NEW YORK.

DESIGN FOR A PLAYING-CARD.

SPECIFICATION forming part of Design No. 13,473, dated December 5, 1882.

Application filed October 28, 1882. Term of patent 14 years.

To all whom it may concern:

Be it known that I, GEORGE G. WHITE, a citizen of the United States, residing at the city of New York, in the county and State of New York, have invented and produced a new and original Design for one of a Pack of Playing-Cards, known as the "Ace of Spades," of which the following is a description, reference being had to the accompanying drawings, forming a part thereof.

The leading feature of my design consists in a solid figure or emblem of an ace of spades, having a heavy border following the contour of the ace spot or pip, said border having inner and outer thin lines of the same configuration. Upon the face of the ace-spot appears an ornamental design consisting of two doves, bow and arrows, and flowers, together with a flowing ribbon. The ace-spot is surrounded with floral ornamentation, a basket appearing to the left and bag-pipes to the right thereof, above which is a coronet. At the upper part of the floral ornamentation and as if seated thereon, on the left side, is a female figure, and on the right a male figure. Below the ace-spot, on ribbon scrolls, appear the following words: "Gem No. 53 N. Y. Consolidated Card Co.;" but these words form no essential part of my design, and are not herein claimed.

What I claim is—

The design for the ace of spades of a pack of cards, as shown and described, the same consisting of an ace-spot surrounded with one heavy and two lighter configurative borders, interior and exterior floral and musical ornamentation, the representation of a female and male figures, an upper coronet, and lower ribbon scrolls, all arranged as described.

GEORGE G. WHITE.
