

[54] MOUTH PROP AND ORAL EVACUATION DEVICE

[76] Inventor: Robert E. Schubert, 161 F Ave., Coronado, Calif. 92118

[21] Appl. No.: 786,147

[22] Filed: Apr. 11, 1977

[51] Int. Cl.² A61C 7/04

[52] U.S. Cl. 32/33

[58] Field of Search 32/33; 128/20

[56] References Cited

U.S. PATENT DOCUMENTS

1,053,965	2/1913	Barghausen et al.	32/33
1,155,342	10/1915	DeWitt	32/33
2,701,916	2/1955	Jarboe	32/33
2,823,455	2/1958	Sprague	32/33
2,873,528	2/1959	Thompson	32/33

3,456,348	7/1969	Van Lanigan	32/33
3,802,081	4/1974	Rogers	32/33
3,924,333	12/1975	Erickson	32/33
4,024,642	5/1977	Zorovich	32/33

Primary Examiner—Louis G. Mancene
Assistant Examiner—John J. Wilson
Attorney, Agent, or Firm—Brown & Martin

[57] ABSTRACT

A combination mouth prop and oral evacuation device for use by a dentist includes a mouth prop for fitting between the upper and lower jaws for holding the mouth open, an attached, generally U-shaped suction tube secured to the mouth prop and fitted inside the lower jaw below the tongue and inside the teeth, for drawing fluids from within the mouth during dental work therein, and a tongue guard on the suction tube.

5 Claims, 5 Drawing Figures

