

tion powers being different and the progressive vision correction powers of the second zone including vision correction powers between the third and fourth vision correction powers.

14. A lens as described in claim 13 wherein the first power is between the second and third powers.

15. A lens as described in claim 13 wherein the progressive vision correction powers of the first zone extend continuously from the first to the second vision correction powers in the region of said first zone which is between the first and second vision correction powers.

* * * * *

10

15

20

25

30

35

40

45

50

55

60

65