[57] ABSTRACT

Diagnostic test indicators for the determination of the concentration of lactate dehydrogenase in sera comprising a bibulous material having diaphorase covalently bound to a hydrophilic, cross-linked, sulfited aldehyde or ketone polymer dispersed throughout the interstices thereof which contains therein the dried residue resulting from the impregnation thereof with

1. an alkali lactate salt,
2. nicotinamide-adenine-dinucleotide and
3. a tetrazolium salt and a process for the production thereof, are disclosed.
