

[54] SHIPPING CONTAINER

[76] Inventor: Gerald W. Olson, Rt. 1, Box 845 S-6, Rosharon, Tex. 77583

[21] Appl. No.: 922,678

[22] Filed: Oct. 24, 1986

[51] Int. Cl.⁴ B65D 8/14; B65D 85/20

[52] U.S. Cl. 220/8; 206/379; 206/446

[58] Field of Search 220/8; 206/379, 446

[56] References Cited

U.S. PATENT DOCUMENTS

504,445	9/1893	Dare	220/8
2,266,001	12/1941	Christanson	220/8
2,641,396	6/1953	Parr	220/8
3,179,278	4/1965	Cohen	220/8
3,198,321	8/1965	Politano	220/8
4,046,279	9/1977	Posler	220/8

FOREIGN PATENT DOCUMENTS

578769	4/1932	Fed. Rep. of Germany	220/8
Ad38623	6/1931	France	220/8
1497929	1/1978	United Kingdom	220/446
861184	9/1981	U.S.S.R.	220/8

Primary Examiner—George E. Lowrance
Attorney, Agent, or Firm—Gun, Lee & Jackson

[57] ABSTRACT

A universal shipping container comprises two separable and telescoping components. The shipping container includes a base plate supporting an upstanding tubular body to be received within a tubular body extending downwardly from a top ring plate. The ring plate includes a central opening for receiving the shanks of a drill bit therethrough. The telescoping components include cooperating fasteners for securely holding the drill bit within the shipping container.

12 Claims, 7 Drawing Figures

