

11

11. A method of spray coating articles with powder from a spray booth, as set forth in claim 10, and further including the steps of returning surplus powder collected by said inner collection means to said coating means, and discarding the surplus powder collected by said outer collection means.

12. A method of spray coating articles with powder from a spray booth, as set forth in claim 10, including causing powder which is adhered to said side wall to fall onto said outer collection means.

12

13. A method of spray coating articles with powder from a spray booth, as set forth in claim 12, and further including causing powder to fall with a vibrating device.

* * * * *