

2

In general, each of PGD, PGE and PGF represents a PG 65 compound having hydroxy groups at positions 9 and/or 11, but in the present specification and claims they also include those having substituents other than the hydroxyl groups at